Christine leads with a combination of systems thinking, endless curiosity, legal experience, and natural verve.

Christine leads the firm's Client Relations department, as well as the firm's strategic projects. She works to ensure that our next 100 years are as successful as our first 100 years – both for Reynolds Mirth and for our clients.

Christine earned an LL.B. from l'Université de Moncton in 2008, graduating second in her class. She previously completed three years of the B.Ed. program at the University of Alberta before early admission to Law. She was called the Alberta Bar in 2009 and practiced law until 2015. She remains a non-practising member of the Law Society of Alberta.

She is an active member of the legal community, with a specific passion for encouraging women in law. She is the current Chair of Edmonton's Women's Legal Forum, a bi-annual gala event (under the umbrella of the Alberta Civil Trial Lawyers' Association) that celebrates women jurists while also raising funds for nonprofit organizations.

Conservatively described as high energy, Christine is an active and community-minded Edmontonian and a 2014 alumna of Avenue Magazine's (now EDify) Top 40 Under 40.

Coming as no surprise to anyone who has ever met her, Christine also loves a good joke. She is a comedy writer and performer who takes the stage from time to time and whose work has appeared on national television and radio.
