

Commercial Real Estate & Development

We provide practical, timely and cost-effective advice related to commercial real estate transactions.

In the world of Commercial Real Estate and Development, you require exceptional, seamless and effective legal advice. Reynolds Mirth has worked on hundreds of transactions, from purchase and sale arrangements to complex real estate development projects. We have invested decades honing our skills.

We can provide you with practical, timely and cost-effective advice for:

- The Purchase or Sale of commercial real estate
- Complex real estate developments including industrial developments, apartment buildings, commercial office developments, condominiums, and shopping centres
- Commercial lease arrangements
- Limited partnerships, joint ventures, or other arrangements

Our Commercial Real Estate and Development work is strengthened by our practice in Construction Law, Municipal Law, Corporate Law, Lending & Security Placement and Condominium Law. Our lawyers are consistently recognized as leaders. This includes recognition from the Best Lawyers™ in Canada and the Canadian Legal Expert Directory.

Our clients rely on us to provide them with top tier advice that is practical and effective. We take pride in being available and responsive in providing that advice to our clients.

Victor Lirette, Partner & Financial team lead

We have been involved in some of Edmonton's highest profile and most exciting real estate development projects. Our clients include local privately held companies, financial institutions including banks and credit unions, insurance companies, property management companies, prolific developers, landlords, and tenants.

We would welcome the opportunity to hear about your upcoming projects. Please contact us to learn more.
