With over 30 years of management and administrative experience in the legal industry, Kelly's wealth of knowledge is an asset to Reynolds Mirth.

As Director of Operations, Kelly is responsible for planning, directing and coordinating the administrative and human resource functions at the firm.

In addition to her extensive experience, she has bolstered her skillset with post-secondary coursework in Business Law, Marketing, and Management from the University of Saskatchewan and MacEwan University. An associate member of CPHR Alberta, she has also shared her expertise as a former sessional instructor at MacEwan University and a guest lecturer at Concordia University and Red Deer Polytechnic.

Kelly is active in the legal community and the community at large. She is a member of the Association of Legal Administrators, as well as a member of the Edmonton Law Office Management Association (ELOMA) where she has held a variety of executive and committee positions from 2010-2017. An avid cyclist, she has also participated in the MS Bike Tour for many years.

Kelly is wife to Greg, mom to three not-so-little kids, and favourite human to her mini schnauzer, Sangria. She and Greg cherish any opportunity to travel to their dream vacation home in Southwest France.
